Summary: "MEDUSA'S SNAKES! WHY DOES IT SAY THAT?!" Dino is troubled when he notices that his name is always after Rhino's. Is it because Rhino is the favorite or could it be that he's more important than Dino? Searching for an answer begins with princess dresses, old man ear hair and panic attacks and leads to sparkly pegasus wings, fire breath and more! The friends eventually figure out that when you need an answer—go straight to the top! But who? Can they solve this mystery before hurt feelings get the better of them both? Find out in Rhino & Dino in: First!

Children inherently want to be heroes and save the world. Each Rhino & Dino story provides undertones for protecting the environment along with a fascinating, little-known fact at the end to help readers do just that. First! is the third in this standalone laugh-out-loud series. Best for ages 3-8+.
